1 Introduction

This is an example file of how your submissions should be formatted. You can either use  $\text{\LaTeX}$  to typeset your submissions (recommended) or any other editing device, as long as the submission is as similar as possible to this example file we gave you.

2 $\text{\LaTeX}$

Typesetting texts in  $\text{\LaTeX}$  is common practise in academic writing. During the NLP-course you have the chance to develop routine to write and submit your textual assignments in  $\text{\LaTeX}$ . You may use the source file NLP-submission.tex located in /local/kurs/nlp/basic1 and edit it accordingly.

3 Other

If you decide not to typeset your submissions in  $\text{\LaTeX}$ , please make sure they look similar to this example file. Particularly, please pay attention to the margins and the font size. After having edited your submission, please make sure to transform it to .pdf format before submission. We will not accept any other format.
